

THE CAREY ACADEMY

The Carey academy of Irish dancing is based in Birmingham, England under the direction of John Carey A.D.C.R.G.

We offer traditional Irish dance classes for children (4+) and adults, from beginners through to World Champions, at our custom designed studio complex in Perry Barr, Birmingham.

Our classes are fun and a great way to keep fit and learn a fantastic art form.

The school was established in June 2007 and to date has won an incredible 15 world titles in both solo and team categories as well as over 100 national titles.

We customise your experience to suit you, if you would just like to dance for fun, or have aspirations to be the next World Champion and star in Lord of the Dance, we can help you achieve your dream.

The Carey Academy is registered with "An Coimisiun Le Rinci Gaelacha" in Dublin, the largest Worldwide Irish dancing governing body.

The Carey Academy started in June 2007 and has gone from strength to strength, winning Regional, National and World Championships in solo, ceili (teams of 8) and figure (teams of 16) categories.
